Dear General Aaron:

As an able representative of the Department of the Army on the National Foreign Intelligence Board, you have given the Chairman strong advice and assistance and I am grateful for your support. You were able not only to present your department's views ably and with great skill, but also to take a broader view of vital national security issues so that the Board was able to take a truly national view.

I take this opportunity to wish you well in the days ahead.

Sincerely,

/s/ George Bush
